

November 17th, 2008— Rezin Orthopedics and Sports Medicine is expanding their orthopedic clinics into the Bolingbrook area. Rezin Orthopedics has grown to include five clinics since 1991; Bolingbrook, Joliet, Plainfield, Morris and Ottawa. The group consists of six orthopedic surgeons, a physiatrist and two podiatrists who have been the leading providers in orthopedic care throughout the Illinois Valley.

The physicians will start seeing patients at 329 Remington Blvd, Suite 200 in early December. Raghu Pulluru, MD, Fellowship Trained in Sports Medicine, Paul Sauer, MD, Fellowship Trained in Total Joint Replacement, Eugene Kuo, MD, Fellowship Trained in Spine, and Renee' Reichert, DPM, Podiatrist will all be holding clinic hours at the Remington location and are active members of Adventist Bolingbrook Hospital.

Rezin Orthopedics is a full service orthopedic care clinic, specializing in general orthopedics, sports medicine, spine, hand surgery, podiatry and total joint replacement. Please feel free to visit our web address at www.rezinortho.com or call 630-226-6822 for more information.
